THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE

of the

Independent Order of Odd Fellows

OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

To the Officers and Members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Officers of all Grand and Subordinate Lodges under the jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

ANNOUNCEMENT

Under date of July 16th, at the request of various agencies of the Government of the United States, a Decree was issued by this office abandoning and cancelling the 1945 session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Under date of September 11, 1945, the office of War Mobilization of the United States of America directed the War Convention Committee and the Office of Defense Transportation to remove the ban on group meetings, inter-state or international in character, effective October 1, 1945. Shortly thereafter a communication was received by this office from the Government of the United States announcing the removal of the ban, and thanking us for the co-operation extended the government during the period the restrictions were in effect. The communication further stated that the removal of the definite restriction was not an invitation to hold meetings or affording assurance that transportation and hotel facilities would be available. The communication ends with a request that we continue to "defer meetings whenever possible and keep necessary meetings small until after the peak of the troop movement which will come early next year."

Immediately upon receipt of the above communication a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was called to meet in the Central Office at Baltimore to consider, among other things, the possibility of holding an adjourned session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The Committee has just concluded its meeting. Preceding the meeting a survey was made of available transportation possibilities, and hotel, printing and other conference facilities which would be necessary for a meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and affiliated groups. Such investigation disclosed that such facilities are not available at the present time in the United States, and will not be available, according to present indications, within the next three or four months. After full discussion a motion was made by Deputy Grand Sire Wheeler, duly seconded and, upon ballot, adopted that no special or adjourned session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge be called or held prior to the next regular annual session of the Sovereign Body in September, 1946. Of this action you will all take due notice and be accordingly governed.

At this meeting of the Executive Committee the members of the Post-War Planning Committee were also in attendance. The wisdom and the merit of the "Odd Fellows War Chest" was made evident as Grand Secretary Ludvigsen laid before the committee communications from the officers of the former grand lodges of Denmark, Belgium, The Netherlands and others, and from the Grand Lodges of Iceland and Sweden. We now face the test—we must and we will meet it. The Grand Sire urgently requests all jurisdictions who have not undertaken to raise the suggested contribution to the Relief Fund to undertake such campaign immediately; that those jurisdictions who have undertaken the campaign immediately remit to the Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge (in those cases where such remittances have not been made) the amount which has been collected in order that we may know the possible extent of our services.

It is impossible to repeat here the stories of persecution devastation and privation reaching us from our Brothers and Sisters in the over-run countries, or to detail the atrocities inflicted upon them. That must await a later time. Emergency relief has already been granted The Netherlands. Other relief will be given as the cases can be properly investigated, and then as the exigencies of the respective situations demand. Then will come the problems of re-habilitation and re-organization. We've a big job ahead of us and it's a job we must do. This time there can be no failure, no lethargy, no unreasonable delay.

The sincere thanks of your Grand Sire is extended to all jurisdictions who have cooperated and assisted in our War Chest and Post-war Programs. Individual letters of commendation cannot be written but all efforts are individually noticed and recognized with grateful and humble appreciation.

Odd Fellowship is on the march! All reports indicate the greatest growth of membership in any single year during the last two decades. Don't let it lag! As the armed forces of our United Nations lay down their arms of war, we, the armed forces of peace, shall mobilize and, uniting with those who believe in the brotherhood of all mankind, prepare to do everything within our power to bind up the wounds of war, to care for our brothers and sisters who have suffered and our members who have borne the brunt of the battle, and to aid the establishment of a perpetual peace; marching ever forward under the banner of those ideals—stronger, more penetrating, more powerful than all implements of war—yes, even stronger and more powerful than the atomic bomb—the ideals of Friendship, Love and Truth,—whereby Peace, finding its source in Odd Fellowship may find its flux only in the sacred realms of Eternity!

Done at the Sovereign Office in the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland, United States of America, this 28th day of September, A.D., 1945, in the one hundred and twenty-seventh year of our Beloved Order.

D. D. MONROE, Grand Sire.

Attest:

E. G. LUDVIGSEN, Grand Secretary.

What the Lodges Are Doing

Are We Filling Our Obligation?

"VISIT THE SICK"

One of the most important duties that members of our Order have pledged themselves to do in their obligation is that of visiting the sick. This has in many cases been neglected to a great extent and how could we spend an hour or so of our time in a better way than that of calling on our sick Brothers, whether he be in the hospital or at home. Remember that he is not able to come to you and we must therefore take our Friendship to them. Only those of us who have at some time or another, being in a similar position, can realize the great joy of having a member call and spend a few minutes of our time. Even a little remembrance, fruit, smokes, or reading, is appreciated.

May I suggest that each lodge should see that its Sick and Visiting Committee are fulfilling their duty, as it may reflect upon the support that a member may give to his lodge when he is able to resume attendance. Do not stop within the bounds of our Order but leave that same cheery word with a fellow man for perhaps some day he may be one of us.

Remember, they are patiently waiting for us so let us not disappoint them.

CHARLES FOX,
Grand Master.

Roll Call Feature 52nd Anniversary

On Tuesday evening, September 25, Friendship Lodge No. 7, Edmonton, celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of the institution of the lodge with a Roll Call of members. It was very gratifying to the committee in charge to see such a large representation, both of our own members and those of the sister lodges. We were especially pleased to have as our honored guests, Grand Master Brother Charles Fox and Deputy Grand Master Brother A. C. Woodard, both of whom favored us with inspiring and informative addresses. We appreciate very much the effort these officers made to be with us.

It was again a very great privilege and pleasure to have one of our two remaining charter members present in the person of that grand old Odd Fellow, Brother Alf Brown, Past Grand Master, who is still going strong and a very active member. Many good wishes were extended to Brother Brown during the evening, as well they might be, and it is our very sincere hope that we will be privileged to have him with us on many more occasions such as this. Our other living charter member, brother C. B. Beals, was unable to be with us, due to ill health, and our very best wishes go out to him for improved health and happiness.

Our program was featured by the reading of the original minutes of the lodge, dated September 25th, 1893, and signed by Brother George T. Bragg as Recording Secretary, who, acting on his medical adviser's advice, was not able to be out to the Roll Call. Brother Bragg is now living in retirement, and our best wishes for continued health and happiness also go out to him. It was very regrettable that he could not be with us in person.

Greetings were extended from the other city lodges, as well as from Edmonton Encampment No. 2, and the Patriarchs Militant, and these were very gratefully received. Quite a large number of our members responded to the call, and some fifteen members by letter. It was good to see so many of our periodic attenders present once more.

Past Grand Master Brother Alf Brown gave a short resume of the history of No. 7 since its inception, which was followed by the reading of the names of those members who had passed on during the intervening years. One minute's standing silence was observed in memory of these departed Brothers. Our own Len Booth gave two very excellent readings which we all enjoyed, the evening closing with lunch and a social hour of visitation.

—G. S. McA.

ADVERTISE YOUR LODGE

If your lodge does not have an ad on the Lodge Directory page, make a motion at the next meeting to place an ad in your fraternal paper.

Dep. Grand Master Has Good Meetings

Since the last issue of the Alberta Odd Fellow the Deputy Grand Master, A. C. Woodard, has made six visits and reports good meetings in each lodge.

On Sept. 10, he was at Stettler Lodge No. 32, where one new member was admitted and two applications are on the table. On Sept. 11, Erskine No. 58 was on the list, where much good work is being done. We were all sorry to learn that our D.D.G.M., Bro. Fox, while still on his feet, is far from being a well man. Let us all hope that he will soon return to health and strength once more. Cheerio, Bro. Fox.

On Sept. 12, several carloads from Stettler went to Big Valley No. 125, and one more new member was given his third degree and 10 new applications are on the table waiting for the harvest to be cleared up before we start on the winter's work. This lodge has been up against a lot of hard luck and among other things has lost all their property by fire. Grand Lodge came to their help and shook out the moth balls from a fair set of working tools and now we are ready to show the Grand Lodge how grateful we are and we will do so by putting on the work with some help from Stettler No. 32. On Sept. 13, a trip was taken to Halkirk No. 61 and the Deputy Grand Master had for his bodyguard three cars from Stettler and several Brothers who live in that district and are members elsewhere, outside of District No. 18. Come along, Brothers, we are glad to have you with us.

On Sept. 24, along with the Grand Master, a visit was made to Namayo No. 47, the Deputy's own lodge. The lodge did not know they were coming and only the faithful few were there, along with Patr. Dave Wilson, P.G.P. and Grand Scribe. Now the moral there is—If you want to know what is going on in your own lodge, attend the meetings.

The highlight of the month was reached when Friendship No. 7 was at home to their membership, the occasion being the 52nd birthday, when everyone turned out to meet the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Master, and the only two charter members of No. 7 who were well enough to be out at night. You will find a write-up from Friendship by their own reporter and we all join in wishing Friendship many long years to carry on the good job she has been doing for the last 52 years.

Next month the Deputy Grand Master has made plans to visit Century Lodge No. 100, Hughenden on Nov. 12, Provost Lodge No. 139 on Nov. 13, Otonabee Lodge No. 134, Czar, on Nov. 14, at their regular meetings, but will have to hold special meetings at Lougheed No. 121 on the 15th and Killam No. 76 on the 16th. I have asked the D.D.G.M. to make arrangements accordingly.

If any of the Brothers are away from home and can be with the lodges mentioned we are sure they will be made welcome. Grand Lodge will welcome the boost they give the lodges by attending. It may be you will give help where it is needed.

Successful Inter-Lodge Visitations

Alberta Lodge No. 1, Calgary

As this is written on Thanksgiving Day it would naturally follow that the thoughts of the writer would turn to those things for which we should be thankful. To have engaged in two world conflicts in roughly one-quarter of a century and to have come out on the winning side is indeed an achievement. That in both cases the fight was away from home was purely a matter of geography. For that we should be truly thankful. It would now appear that scientific advancements have outmoded many of those things upon which we have come to depend. To be thankful for past blessings is as it should be. Perhaps a blessed future for this old planet can not be guaranteed but it is still something to work for.

For the past five years local Odd Fellows have assisted Scarboro Hostess Hall at least once each year. The occasions were the hall's birthday parties. This year the birthday party took the form of a final windup. Sandstone City No. 17 and this lodge were joint hosts to the hall at the Temple. Upward of four hundred hostesses and service men observed the occasion. Currie Barracks orchestra provided the music, military and civilian personages were on hand and the hard working committee very much in evidence. Scarboro United Church is to be congratulated on its fine undertaking. Many service men, in the years to come, will recall pleasant evenings spent at the hall. The small part the Odd Fellows have been able to play will be just so much to the good.

If you do not think that young folks are critical, here is one from the records of the hall. One of the committee asked a young service man what kind of a time he was having. The reply was, "Not so good." When asked what was the trouble, his answer was, "Ah, I got stuck with an old woman of twenty-nine nearly all evening."

District Deputy Grand Master Palfrey of District No. 11, has inaugurated a program of inter-lodge visitations. The first of which was at Bow Valley No. 89, Cochrane, on Oct. 2. Between forty and fifty members made the trip. Grand Master Fox, Crossfield, visited officially, accompanied by D.D.G.M. Palfrey, Grand High Priest Sheffield (Grand Encampment), and Dept. Comm. McGaw (Patriarchs Militant). Bow Valley is the white haired boy of District No. 11 when it comes to membership increase. Already this year ten applications for membership had been acted upon and at the meeting, Oct. 2, four more were referred to committees. With many of their members returning from the armed forces and the old timers, No. 89 expects to get back into degree work. In the meantime, Calgary can always be counted upon to lend a hand. Visits to Cochrane have become so popular that No. 89 was in danger of being eaten out of house and home by the hungry Calgarians. To circumvent this possibility, the visitors take up a collection for whatever they think the feed was worth and leave it for the next time. The habit is now well established despite the objections of Cochrane.

It was learned that Bow Valley expects to again hold a Hallow'een party for the school children in the district. This is a community enterprise which should suggest itself to other town and village lodges.

The correspondent for Elston, Saskatchewan has decided that writing for the Alberta Odd Fellow is not a "private affair" but like an Irish fight, "anybody can get in." Handling the job for the whole province is quite a chore for one man and no wonder he is calling for assistance. Anybody taking bets that the other scribes will let him down?

The only way to work in any lodge news at this late date would be to tear up the foregoing and start over. However, there is always the danger of hashing it up just as bad so we let 'er ride.

At a USO concert a very stout soprano was singing, "If I had the wings of a dove, I'd fly—"

A rookie in the rear exclaimed, "Why, that bird would need the wings of a bomber."

Three Hills Lodge Increases Membership

The regular meeting of Three Hills I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 12 was held Sept. 27, in the Odd Fellow's hall. The attendance was rather small owing to the fact that this is our first regular meeting since the summer holidays and with harvesting not yet completed, a number of brothers either forgot or could not attend.

Great plans were made for increasing the membership of the lodge as we have quite a number of candidates lined up and there are also three Odd Fellows who have moved into our town in the past few months who are desirous of transferring to our lodge.—E.E.

Ryley Lodge No. 75 Starts Fall Term

Nothing particular to write about from Ryley No. 75 this time. We had no initiations or degrees, but we had a very enjoyable, well attended meeting on Sept. 25. The highlight of the meeting was the appearance of our Brother Brown, back from the hospital. Bro. Brown gave us a very interesting talk on his experiences while at the Royal Alex. He roomed with a brother Odd Fellow with whom he seemed to have gotten along very well. This fellow sufferer (?) was named Alfred Williams, he said, and he gave the impression that he would not mind going back and have some other little thing removed could he be sure of the company of Bro. Williams.

Bro. Brown also was very enthusiastic about the kindness of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs who visited them so often. The Rebekahs were from the Jewel Lodge and Bro. Brown said they were all real jewels. They were beauties, too, he said. Bro. Brown wanted the secretary to write a letter of appreciation to Bro. Williams, but why keep a thing like that a private matter? If Bro. Williams is such a fine fellow, why not let all the brothers know about it? I believe it does a man a lot more good to have a bouquet given him while he is still alive than a whole hearse full of wreaths and sprays after he is dead and gone.

Now, while I have been throwing bouquets, as you might say, vicariously, I would like to send a nice bouquet, personally, to our new Noble Grand, Bro. Christofferson. At his first meeting since elected, he went right through the ceremonies without "the Book," and he was elected from "the floor," too, just two weeks before. That in my opinion is something to shoot at.

Matt may have whispered once or twice, maybe.—Con.

Cochrane Enjoys Visit From Hillhurst Lodge

Just a couple of months until Christmas. Why bring that up, sez you? I will tell you, sez I. It is because I want to catch all your folks before you get all your shopping done, and give you a good tip on where you can use your money to advantage. I want to draw your attention to the wonderful things the blind people make. Their workshop is situated on Fourth Street West between 6th and 7th avenues, and it will be well worth your while to go along and take a look around. It will amaze you what they make. You will get good value for your money and will be helping these people to help themselves as well.

A short time ago we had the pleasure of welcoming back to lodge an ardent worker of the famed gas house gang, Bro. C. A. Davis, P.G.M. He was down this way on vacation, and, as always, he took time out to visit us. In his remarks to the lodge he gave us a slight eye-opener as to where some of our victory bond money went. This brother has a wealth of experience in Odd Fellowship, and is always ready with friendly, helpful advice. He is not, however, very hot at mechanics. I did my best to explain to him the workings of a little machine in the ante-room, but with very little success. We hope the time is not too far distant when we shall have him back with us for good.

Monday, October 2, a big gang of brothers headed west to visit Cochrane and Bow Valley Lodge No. 89. The D.D.G.M. Bro. A. E. Palfrey was responsible for organizing the trip, and I think he was very pleased with the support he received. He has one suggestion to make, however, and that is that Bow Valley consider moving the lodge room to the western approaches to the town, so that the brothers can get there before the lodge closes. Be that as it may, we received the usual royal welcome from the Cochrane boys and spent a very pleasant evening with them. Among those present were the Grand Master, Chas. Fox; P.D.D.G.M., Archie McDonald, Grand High Priest Archie Sheffield, and Dept. Comm. Major C. W. McGaw. There were also others present like Jimmy Carrington, Ernie Stark, Henry Strange and the gang, about 25 of them, from Hillhurst. Many of these gave interesting messages when called upon to speak. One of the most interesting of these was when Bro. E. Anderson announced that Bow Valley lodge had 12 applications for membership on the table. Well, that's just the kind of members that make up Bow Valley lodge. They go out and get their men. We were all very glad to see Bro. Jack Beynon back in harness after his serious illness, and wish him continued good health. I should have mentioned in the list of those who went to Cochrane the names of Bro. D. C. Gordon, Grand Warden, and Bro. McDannold, N.G. of No. 46. They started out for the lodge, but I understand they got lost in the long grass or something.

Our social committee has started planning for an active winter season, a social evening has been billed for Thursday, October 18, and another for November 29. Then the kiddies' Christmas party December 20. They hope you will keep these dates in mind and attend if at all possible.

I hear Bro. Red Stewart has arrived back in town and no doubt we shall be reading his contributions to these columns in the near future. We have not seen Sandstone No. 17, nor St. George No. 39 in print for a long time. How about it down there. Let's hear from you. It's good free advertising for your lodge, too.—F.W.H.

Ponoka Lodge Pays Fraternal Visit

Now after the holiday makers have returned to work with various tall tales about the score they made at various courses both well known and obscure, the big fish that got away and the smaller ones they fried—We are ready to begin again with our lodge work. We have attained our much mooted goal and have two more applications in for our next hundred. So we are away to a good start. At our September meeting our Noble Grand and Vice Grand treated the lodge to a chicken supper. For once our old side-kick, T. W. H., had enough chicken.

The next few days remarks were heard on every side about the "grand doin's at the Odd Fellows' lodge. Fried chicken, that's what they have there," and so far into the night.

The notices are already out for the district meeting for Oct. 22. We hope for a large turn-out and consequently a good lively meeting. Our P.D.D.G.M., M. E. Granlund, has been seen walking down Main street in a very brown study. We presume thinking over that welcoming speech.

In September two carloads of members accompanied the D.D.G.M. to pay a fraternal visit to Wetaskiwin No. 8, just to help bolster his morale. We had a grand time, too. The Wetaskiwin brothers served the visitors with supper in the Driard Hotel. There has been a little scandal, too, about Bro.

"Shorty" going out to shoot ducks in his fraternal brother's yard, just to be there first you know. The farmer says that shot was falling in the milk pails.

Of course, we have no record of the ducks, but still there is the story.

Bro. E. Hickmore is home to spend a few days with his parents from the Col. Mewburn hospital. We are certainly glad to see this brother improving. Our members with the forces are returning amongst us again. We extend to them a very hearty welcome and are very pleased to see them and shake their hands again. We also extend a very cordial welcome to any brothers to visit with us at our district meeting on October 22.—M.D.K.

Sharara Sanctorum Number 272, Calgary

It seems that every time I write I'm apologizing for something or other. I didn't get my September write-up in because I was out of the province and if this write-up is short, I've only just got back and haven't gotten into the groove yet.

Looking over the Odd Fellow, it seems that Sam Gordon, the Grand Warden, is a little mixed up or something. One correspondent reports that he presided at the memorial service and another that he was absent. Will you please explain, Bill?

Since I got back I've been taken to task for omitting the name of the place where we held our picnic. I really have no excuse, unless it was the pure country air which I was inhaling at the time. How's that for a good excuse, Doc?

According to eyewitness reports, an evening's enjoyment was held on Sept. 26 in No. 1 hall in the Temple. Spark-plug Palfrey evidently fell down in his part of the entertainment as he got his wires crossed or had a short circuit. However, he reported a goodly crowd and a good time had by all.

I read with interest the report of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan. They seem to be enacting some real good legislation down there. One thing that was brought up was appointing a district organizer or fieldman on a full time salary. The lodges of Alberta could stand to have something like that, as it is nearly impossible for the Grand Master to get around to all the lodges in the province as he's only in office for a year.

C. L. H., correspondent from Elston, Sask., seems to be a real live wire and I sure enjoy his write-ups. Your Alberta correspondents had better look to their laurels or we'll be beaten by Saskatchewan.

I don't know if there'll be a write-up from the scribe of Hillhurst No. 46, as rumor has it he had too much excitement at Cochrane last Oct. 2, and had contracted a cold. Evidently a number of Samaritans also journeyed to Cochrane, and Sam Palfrey is going to take signs out to Cochrane the next trip pointing the way to the lodge hall.

Well, Samaritans, I'll likely have more to report next month as I'll be around more than the last two.—D.S.

Viaduct Fall Meeting a Notable Success

Well, here we are once again, and I may say getting away to a flying start for the fall sessions, after the usual lag in attendance during the summer months.

Our first meeting in September proved to be one of the best this year, both in attendance and harmony. Bro. J. Easton and his degree team conferred the second degree on candidate Bro. Doug Ferguson, and they did a splendid job, especially the robbers, when they got their hands on Bro. Easton who was taking the conductor's part. This was followed by the presentation of four Veteran's Jewels to Bro. Wm. Aldous, our financial secretary, who, by the way, has held this office for about 24 years out of the 25 years or a little better that he has held membership; Bro. Ed. Sinclair, our vocalist, who has just been discharged from the R.C.A.F., and Bro. Wm. MacGregor, who made a special trip from Calgary to be present at this meeting. Bro. W. G. Jaycock, who resides in Edmonton, was also expected to be present but was unable to make the trip on account of illness, and at his request his jewel was mailed to him.

During the presentation the lodge was lowered to permit the new candidate to witness the doings. Every member wishes to congratulate these fine new Veteran members and we wish them many years of health to enable them to wear these jewels.

We also welcomed back to the fold Major Ted Lawrence and Cpl. Geo. Rebar, who have recently received their discharge from the army. After the appropriate little speeches which are usually the order at these presentations, the boys sat down to a splendid lunch, put on by the entertainment committee.

This week the good attendance continued, and the initiatory degree was conferred on Candidate J. L. Kergan, and an application for transfer from Indian Head Lodge No. 8, Saskatchewan, was received from Bro. J. Hardie. With several more applications lined up, it looks as if we are in for a busy time, with degree work until the end of the year at least.

Since you last heard from us we were favored with a very unexpected visit from our worthy Grand Master, Bro. Fox. We were sorry that the attendance that night was very poor, but the boys who were there certainly enjoyed and appreciated the talk that Grand Master Fox gave.

We must also take this opportunity of heartily congratulating our Pianist, Bro. Hartland, and his pop-in-law, Grand Patriarch Bro. W. Blair. That G.P. also stands for "Grand Pa now, as Scotty's wife presented him with a bouncing baby boy a few weeks ago. Another good Odd Fellow, we hope.—C.J.P.

Regina Odd Fellows to Build New Temple

Now that hostilities have ceased, Regina Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are contemplating the building of a new Temple in the not too far distant future. Plans have already been made for a joint dance sponsored by all lodges to be held in the Trianon on November 7, 1945, the proceedings to go to the building fund.

On September 24, Regina Lodge No. 6 and Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 3 held a joint farewell party for Brother and Sister A. C. Shaw, who are leaving Regina for the west coast to take a well earned rest. Approximately 100 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were present and cards were played. During the evening Sister Shaw was presented with a beautiful purse by Sister DeGuerre, P.P., on behalf of Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 3, and a Past Grand's Jewel was presented to Brother Shaw by Brother F. D. Gray, Grand Secretary, on behalf of Regina Lodge No. 6. Brother and Sister Shaw have been members of the Regina lodges for 20 years, and Brother Shaw, treasurer of No. 6 for 16 years. Best of luck, Brother and Sister A. C. Our loss is somebody else's gain.

October looks like the month of degrees. Both Regina Lodge No. 6 and Queen City Lodge No. 64 have membership drives on, a prize being donated by the D.D.G.M. for the team which brings in the most applications during the term. The Rebekahs are also going strong on applications and all three lodges are conferring degrees during October.—L.G.N.

Seven Regional Conferences Scheduled in Saskatchewan

Holding of seven regional conferences throughout the jurisdiction was decided upon recently by the advisory board of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan.

Each conference is to be under the supervision of an elective grand lodge officer. The first of these conferences will be held in Moose Jaw on Thanksgiving Day, Oct. 8.

Twenty-five lodges representing five districts will be represented at this conference and with a conservative estimate of five members from each country lodge and 10 members from each of four city lodges, plus district deputies and speakers, there should be an attendance of about 175 members, says George F. Dawson, Grand Treasurer, who has furnished the Alberta Odd Fellow with the program.

Speakers have been chosen to deal with topics of live interest to Odd Fellowship and following each address there will be a general discussion. It is expected that this will develop into a School of Odd Fellowship which should prove to be of decided advantage to all members who contemplate going through the chairs, as it is generally agreed that too many officers take the chairs without the benefit of preparatory training.

Lodges in the opening conference area include Regina, Moose Jaw, Milestone, Wilcox, Rouleau, Drinkwater, Assiniboia, Vantage, Limerick, Caron, Woodrow, Mortlach, Marquis, Tugaskie, Lawson, Mawer, Elbow, Hawarden, Dilke, Bethune, Balgonie, Cravem and Riverhurst.

Subjects for addresses at the opening session include: Programs for Lodge Meetings and Social Activities; Should members be suspended immediately upon non-payment of dues for one year?; Grand Lodge and its Relation to Subordinates; Planning and Conducting a Membership Campaign; A Review of Home Fund Work during the past year; Improving Degree Work; Should Relief Assistance by the Home Board be discontinued and passed on to the Municipality?

Featuring the evening session will be the conferring of the Third Degree by members of Valley Lodge No. 1 and Mizpah Lodge No. 93. Addresses will be given by the Deputy Grand Master, Bro. Q. S. Sundstrom, and Grand Master Bro. John Macklem.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

Degrees Are Given by Ruth Rebekahs

My apologies for missing the last few months, but now that the fall term is in full swing we'll be back with you regularly. This is Ruth Rebekah Lodge No. 5, Medicine Hat.

First of all I must report that we have been very active in the war effort. We have purchased war bonds, sent gum, cigarettes and chocolates regularly to our boys overseas. Most of our members were regular blood donors and industrious knitters for the Red Cross.

An impressive degree under the able direction of Sister Muxworthy, P.N.G., initiated five new members. We were happy to welcome two new members by transfer, Sister Hearst, from Wilkie, Sask., and Sister McFall from Etzikom.

A party was held and presentations were made to Sister Florence Taylor (nee Smithson) who was recently married; Sister Nora Nesting who left us to make her home in Calgary, and Sister Olive Forster who left to make her home in Innisfail.

A social evening was arranged for closing our lodge for the term, at which the entertainment committee showed the members how not to behave at their sewing circles, and hidden talent was uncovered when two of the members rendered a touching Swedish love ballad.

We are expecting our Assembly Warden to visit us at our next meeting.—O.B.K.

Lougheed Rebekahs Open Fall Program

Hello, everybody! Here we are again, Lougheed Rebekah Lodge No. 55, after a two months' holiday. Some really had pleasures, while others again spent some time in the hospital.

In July, Sister Pearl Walmsley and Sister C. Lawrence underwent operations, and Sister Margaret Denham gave birth to another daughter who we trust in years to come, will also be an active Rebekah. Also in July, our two worthy sisters, Madge E. Voorhees and Hazel Anderson (our latest candidate), chose for themselves a better half. Madge, now Mrs. Ray Sundberg, got married July 16, and we understand is making her home at Dawson Creek, after getting her discharge from the R.C.A.F.

Hazel got married July 19 to Le Roy Kelly of the U.S. Army, stationed in California, so of course, she is patiently waiting to be able to go to the States soon. Brother and Sister H. J. Walmsley are enjoying a trip to Ontario. Bro. Walmsley left early this spring and Sister Walmsley joined him the latter part of July. We missed them at our opening meeting Sept. 11. Hope to see them at our next meeting night.

I was pleased to see an item from Mizpah Lodge of Consort, which was my home for a number of years. Although I was not a lodge member then, I knew many of the Sisters. My very best wishes to you all, and write again please. You and I, Gladys, have had the same kind of jobs in lodge for some years now.

Joint Session for Assembly Secretary

Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge No. 112, Millet, met in joint session at Wetaskiwin with Crescent Rebekah Lodge No. 6 on September 11, to welcome Sister Ada Day, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, who was paying the official visit for the President.

Immediately following the meeting a banquet was held, followed by the 37th annual Roll Call of Crescent Rebekah Lodge.

The 94th anniversary of the founding of the Rebekah Lodges also was observed.

Sister Asp, Noble Grand, welcomed the members and visitors, who totalled more than 100. Sister L. Goodman, of Ponoka, Vice President of the Rebekah Assembly, and Sister M. West, D.D.P. for District No. 9B, both addressed the gathering. Sister West was present on the evening of Sept. 24, 1908, when the lodge was instituted in Wetaskiwin.

The musical part of the program was furnished by Sisters Pullan, MacDonnell, Scott and Manes, of Crescent lodge.

Telegrams and letters were received from those unable to attend.

At the second meeting on September 25 of Crescent Rebekah Lodge No. 6, it was decided to start the lodge whist parties on the first Wednesday of each month, throughout the winter months. The first card party of the season is to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 7, in the I.O.O.F. lodge rooms.

It was also decided to hold an "Old Time" dance, sponsored by the Rebekahs, on Oct. 26, in the Elks' hall. Proceeds from this dance are to be used for charity purposes.

Following lodge, the monthly birthday party was celebrated for those sisters whose birthdays occurred during the month.—I.M.

Mark Anniversary of Rebekah Degree

Celebrating the 94th anniversary of the institution of the Rebekah degree of Odd Fellowship, the sisters of Alexandra Rebekah Lodge, Pincher Creek, entertained the brother Odd Fellows of Subordinate Lodge No. 5 and their partners. Twelve tables of court whist were in play.

During the social period, D.D.P. Sister Fern Petersen welcomed the guests and gave a brief talk extolling the beauty and ideals of the Rebekah Degree and the significance of the three words, Friendship, Love and Truth, and the three links.

Following lunch Brother A. L. Freebairn voiced the thanks of himself and the brothers and friends for a very happy evening. Sister Grace Tucker, N.G., responded, expressing appreciation of the large response to the invitations and hoping another similar evening and get-together could soon be arranged.

Princess Rebekahs Open for Fall Term

After two months' holiday, lodge reopened on September 12. We are looking forward to a good year.

On September 25 the local Rebekahs journeyed to Lamont to visit Onward Lodge No. 113. Sister Minnie Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly, was present on her official visit to Onward.

The Onward sisters initiated three candidates exemplifying the Seven Sister Degree. We were especially interested in this.

At the close of the meeting we sat down to a very tasty lunch which was really enjoyed by all present.

At our Sept. 26 meeting, three applications for membership by initiation were read.—E.A.C.

Harmony Rebekahs Resume Activities

The holiday season of August is over and as September comes we of Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11, High River, gather together once more for lodge activities, and although lodge opened on the 13th, we had a good attendance. I feel I should mention our faithful few Rebekah sisters who never failed meeting each week during our holiday season, sometimes in the I.O.O.F. hall, often in some kind sister's home. Truly sisters of mercy for Red Cross. We of Harmony, however, wish to change the term of office to semi-annual and a notice of motion was read and passed by the lodge. Sister Doris Gale, P.N.G., reading and signing said motion for first reading.

The committee which had a refreshment booth on Sports' Day gave a good financial statement, the sum of $72 being realized. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to all helpers in the booth.

It was also decided to celebrate the ninety-fourth anniversary of the inauguration of the Rebekah degree of Odd Fellowship Sept. 20, by holding a whist drive, each member inviting a friend or husband. The entertainment committee was composed of three of our High River hospital nurses, Sister Peterson, Sister Carnahan and Sister Kate Snodgrass, P.N.G. Refreshment committee, Sister Theo Gordon, Sister Weber, R.S., Sister W. Clark, N.G.

Although the night was stormy and cool we had a large attendance, all reporting an enjoyable evening. The dining room was beautifully decorated with 1851—1945 anniversary plaques in Victory colors. The tables looked beautiful with pink gladioli and asters, with the usual good eats. A beautiful picture of Welcome Home was hung on the wall, containing names of I.O.O.F. members and Rebekahs serving in the armed forces numbering eighteen Brothers and two Rebekahs.

The lodge appointed Sister Weber, R.S., as representative on the citizen's committee, High River rehabilitation for returned boys. This is sponsored by the High River Legion, who asked that each organization in town be represented. Sister Skartz, Sister Burnett and Sister Miller, P.N.G., were chosen as a committee. High River Red Cross also called for helpers to pack clothing Oct. 15, 16 and 17. Six sisters are to work each day. There was no trouble getting volunteers for this kind of work, and committees will be appointed at the October meeting.

Sister Miller gave a report of Sister Gifford, a returned nursing sister from overseas who was a patient many months in Belcher hospital, Calgary. We were pleased to hear Sister Gifford was recovering and had been visiting friends in High River. Also the lodge members extend the best of wishes on her marriage for a long and happy life. The Rebekahs also gave her a beautiful hand-painted console as wedding gift, Sister Miller making the presentation.

As usual our birthday party was a happy event but on account of redecorating the dining room of the I.O.O.F. hall, Sister Helen Chapman, V.G., invited Sisters and Brothers to her home and a most enjoyable evening was spent playing whist. Sister Mabel Burnett received the birthday gift for the month. We had a lovely evening and also enjoyed the hospitality of Helen's Mother and Dad, Bro. Bill and Sister Irvine, P.N.G. Once again, thank you for a good time.

Presentation Made to Departing Members

Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge No. 112, Millet, has had two small meetings since our holidays in July and August, and on Sept. 11 we enjoyed a joint meeting with Crescent Lodge No. 6, of Wetaskiwin, when Sister Ada Day, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, made an official visit for Sister M. Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly. Also present at this meeting was Vice-President of the Assembly Sister L. Goodman of, Ponoka, and D.D.P. of District No. 9B, Sister Mae West, of Millet.

A banquet and Roll Call of Crescent Lodge was held after the lodge meeting, and was very much enjoyed by all.

On Sept. 27, Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge and Millet I.O.O.F. Lodge, with their husbands and wives, held a social evening to bid farewell to an old and faithful Odd Fellow, Brother A. P. Mitchell, and his wife, who are leaving Millet to make their home at the coast, due to Mrs. Mitchell's health.

The evening was spent in songs, speeches, community singing and conversation, after which all sat down to a lovely lunch, served by the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows. After lunch, Sister Winnifred Ross presented Bro. Mitchell with a leather wallet containing a sum of money. Mr. Mitchell spoke very appreciatively on behalf of Mrs. Mitchell, who was not able to be present owing to ill health. After all joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and "Auld Lang Syne," everyone parted for home after bidding farewell to an old and respected member. —A.W.

Plans to Welcome Assembly Warden

On Friday evening, Sept. 21, the Triple Link P.N.G.'s Club No. 4, Medicine Hat, met at the home of Sister Miller. Sister Mida Gordon, President, presided.

A letter from the Salvation Army Home Front was read, requesting donations. It was moved that $5.00 be donated to the S.A.H.F. A bill for flowers was ordered paid. It was moved that a luncheon be held at the Cosmopolitan hotel on Wednesday, Sept. 26, at 1:00 p.m., in honor of the official visit of the Assembly Warden, Sister Padgett.

The serious condition of Sister Le Page was reported, and roses were ordered to be sent to her; also, more flowers before our next meeting. A discussion took place regarding replenishing the funds of the club. Sister Cove offered her home for a court whist party to take place on Oct. 6, and the offer was accepted.

The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Lefever. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. —E.M.

Adeline Rebekahs at Social Evening

Members of Adeline Rebekah Lodge No. 54, Wainwright, held a social evening in the I.O.O.F. hall after their regular lodge meeting recently, when they entertained the local Odd Fellows lodge and a few friends in commemoration of the founding of the Order ninety-four years ago.

The entertainment was in the form of a "little Monte Carlo" evening when a series of tables were set around the hall where the guests tried their luck at the various games of chance. At the close of the evening it was found the winners of the high scores were Mrs. T. Billings and Major R. Morrison, with Mrs. F. Fahner getting the consolation gift.

A tasty lunch was served by the Rebekahs to the assembled guests before the party broke up about midnight.

NEED MORE SUBSCRIBERS

Now that all lodges have opened their fall and winter program season, this is a good time to think of giving additional support to the Alberta Odd Fellow. This is your own publication, devoted exclusively to promoting the principles of Odd Fellowship and reporting lodge activities.

The management has set an objective of 1,000 subscribers before the Grand Lodge session next spring. That means doubling the present subscriber total. With the full support of lodges, there is no doubt that this objective can be reached.

It is estimated that the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges in Alberta have an approximate membership of 7,500. The number of subscribers to the Alberta Odd Fellow is 550. It will be seen at a glance that even the attaining of a subscriber total of 1,000 by spring is only a small percentage of the potential list.

The editor and publisher has been deeply encouraged by the support and co-operation given by the various lodges. If this support is intensified and augmented with every lodge helping all it can, we will succeed in building up subscriber strength.

As more members receive the Alberta Odd Fellow, the general work and strength of the entire lodge organization will benefit.

Many complimentary letters have been received by the editor concerning the improved appearance, make up and general appeal of the material in this publication. These expressions are deeply gratifying.

We believe that with full support in the coming months, the Alberta Odd Fellow will make a gracious bow at the Grand Lodge session with a subscriber total of at least 1,000. Let's begin now to work for that objective.

Memorial Service Saskatoon District

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the Saskatoon district met in their temple on Sunday, Sept. 16, in commemoration of the members who have passed on to the Great Beyond.

The service commenced at 2:45 p.m., with Rev. S. J. Colley, P.G., of Delisle, in charge. It opened with the hymn "Glory Be to the Father," then a prayer by Bro. Colley, chorus and solo by the choir, with Bro. S. T. Heselton singing two verses as solo. The Bible reading was taken from the 15th Chapter of Corinthians. Mrs. J. W. Rivett sang as a solo "He Wipes the Tear from Every Eye."

Bro. Colley then gave a forceful address taking as his topic "Christianity, the Philosophy of Life." We then sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," after which about 75 went to Woodlawn cemetery and placed a bouquet, with a sprig of evergreen attached, on about 150 graves. We then gathered around the Cenotaph. Bro. Rasmusson, who had just arrived from overseas, placed a beautiful wreath on the Cairn. The closing hymn was "Abide With Me." Bro. Colley then gave the final exhortation from the Odd Fellows' service. The Grand Master of Saskatchewan, Bro. John Macklen, K.C., was present.

Good Attendance at Watrous Lodge No. 63

On September 11, three carloads of Watrous brothers journeyed to Humboldt to bring home the Travelling Gavels. For many of our boys it was the first visit to Humboldt lodge and we really had a grand time. They sure treated us royally and we all made new friendships and look forward to a return visit from our good neighbors to the south.

The fall session of meetings opened here on September 18 with a good attendance, including a surprise visit from our oldest member, in the person of Bro. Wm. Duncan, also a charter member. He gave a very interesting talk on Odd Fellowship and some of his experiences in the pioneering days around Watrous. He also touched on his experiences as a piper in one of the Scottish pipe bands attending the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893; also of being a piper in the same band in the Sudan, Africa.

Bro. Duncan, now in his 84th year, presented the Watrous lodge with a large photo of himself in his Scots uniform and pipes, taken in his younger days. The picture has been hung up in the lodge room.

Asked after his talk on the reaction of the African natives regarding the pipe band, Bro. Duncan promised to speak to the lodge on this subject at a later date.

At our regular meeting on October 2, plans were made to attend the regional meeting at Humboldt on Oct. 17. These regional meetings are a wonderful inspiration for Odd Fellowship and we are hoping for a good attendance, as this region comprises about 16 lodges. With the Grand Master to be present along with other lodge officials, a good session is hoped for.

We were glad to note in the last issue lodge activities from our good neighbor Elston Lodge No. 138. As we are well acquainted with the Elston brethren it was interesting to note their wonderful progress, and for myself it was news from the old home town. Keep up the good work, Carl. Also, let's have more news from our Saskatchewan lodges.

More news from No. 63 next month.

Rebekah Veteran Jewels Ordered

At the regular meeting of Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1, Calgary, on Sept. 10, Sister Tait, N.G., called the lodge to order at 8:05 p.m. There were eleven officers and several members present.

Members on the sick list read by our new Vice Grand, Sister Alberta Andrews, were Sisters G. Wright, A. Balmer, N. Whitfield, P.N.G., and Brother Redding, and Sister Moore, of Acme, Alberta, is in the General hospital. Brother Galloway's daughter has been quite ill, and so has P.N.G. Sister L. Fraser's mother. Sister Gertrude Parkinson's daughter had a son born on Sept. 8. P.N.G. Sister Clara Horwell's boy, Frank Krammer, is a patient at the Keith Sanatorium.

It was decided to purchase 15-year Rebekah veteran jewels for our members who are now eligible to receive them.

The date for our fall tea and bazaar is set for Saturday afternoon, November 17. Sister Emily Godfrey is convener for the tea.

Sisters A. MacNeil and Katie Tait, P.N.G., are on the joint dance committee. The Noble Grand called on Brother Thomson for a few words. In reply, Bro. Thomson told the members of the swell time he had had when visiting various lodges in other cities.

The world is not so bad a world
As some would like to make it;
But whether good or whether bad
Depends on how you take it.

Golden Sheaf Rebekah Lodge Three Hills

More than 20 sisters met at the home of Sister Arnold for a farewell to Sister Jessie Burnett, P.D.D.P. of District 13A who left to make her home in California in July.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent and Sister Burnett was presented with a gift of money towards a chest of silver.

The lodge also presented Sister Burnett with a gift of money and the P.N.G. club gave her a pair of silver candlestick holders.

We all wish Sister and Brother Burnett success in their new home and we certainly shall miss them very much, especially Sister Jessie as she never missed a meeting, hail, rain, snow or blow.

A farewell was also given at the home of Sister Shea, N.G., in September for Sister E. Kerr, who left to live at Donalda. Sister Kerr's husband is home out of the forces and back teaching again. On behalf of the members personally and also Golden Sheaf lodge Sister Kerr was presented with a lovely gift. We shall all miss Sister Kerr's kind, quiet ways around our lodge and town.

In August some of the sisters of Golden Sheaf lodge catered for the lunch at the dance put on by the Air Cadets at Keiver's Lake. Nearly $40 was realized after all expenses.

On our sick list the last two months we have had Sister Millie Howe, Sister Christie who had a serious operation, Sister M. Dormer, Sister Brandly and Sister Reynolds, also Sister Janet Grant.—J.A.

Willey Rebekah Lodge Elects New Vice Grand

Our fall term started with the regular meeting on September 10. Our Vice Grand resigned her office on account of ill health. Under nomination, election and installation, Sister Thora Barrie and Sister Yvonne Allworth were nominated to fill the vacancy. Sister Allworth declined, and Sister Barrie was elected as Vice Grand. Sister Helen Orr, D.D.P., assisted by Sister Agnes Allen, P.N.G., Sister Helen Spencer, P.N.G., Sister Gertrude Akers, P.N.G., and Sister Margaret Lefever, P.N.G., installed Sister Barrie as Vice Grand for the remainder of the term. Lunch was served downstairs by the refreshment committee, and then we held our degree practice.

At our regular meeting on September 24, we welcomed Sister Padgett, our Assembly Warden. Sister Rose opened her home in the afternoon for a tea in honor of Sister Padgett, and was her hostess for Monday night. At the meeting Sister Padgett, Assembly Warden, Sister Helen Orr, D.D.P. of District No. 18, Sister Margaret Rose, Past President, Sister Jean Gordon, Past President, and Sister Edith Muxworthy, Assembly Chaplain, were welcomed and given the honors of the Rebekah degree. Sister Purdy of Truro, Nova Scotia, was also welcomed. The beautiful Rebekah Degree was conferred on Mrs. Helen Brown, and then our annual Roll Call was held. Forty-three members answered the roll, and seven letters were read from out of town members. Under Good and Welfare, Sister Jean Lefever, Noble Grand, called on Sister Padgett to speak to us. Her talk was very interesting and appreciated by all the members. She complimented Sister Thora Barrie, our new Vice Grand, on having her charge learned in so short a time, and especially the obligation. She reminded all the members that each one should know their obligation. She complimented the degree team on their work, and was very glad that we had a candidate to put through. Sister Padgett was presented with a gift from the lodge.

Sewing Circle No. 1 donated 50 new knives to the lodge. Following lodge a very nice supper was put on by Sewing Circle No. 1 and the refreshment committee in honor of Sister Padgett. For supper we had baked ham, tomato, cucumber and potato salad, rolls, cake and coffee and tea. All the members enjoyed the meeting and everyone enjoyed meeting Sister Padgett. We all hope that she is able to come back again.

Our regular meeting of October 8 was cancelled as it fell on Thanksgiving Day.—M.L.

Assembly Secretary Guest at Anniversary

A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent by the Rebekahs of Calgary on Monday, Oct. 1, when they gathered together after the regular meeting of Sandstone Lodge No. 83, to celebrate the 94th anniversary of the founding of the Rebekah degree.

Sister Jean Lamb, D.D.P. of District No. 13, acted as chairman for the program, which consisted of pianoforte and accordion solos, songs and readings.

The highlight of the evening was the talk given by Sister Ada Day, Assembly Secretary, who outlined the history and growth of the Rebekah degree, which she said, had started in a very feeble way in 1851, and in the intervening years had grown from a weak infant to a strong organization, composed of one international group, The Association of Rebekah Assemblies, 56 state and provincial assemblies.

Rebekahs were the instigators of the Home movement which has resulted in the building of 65 homes for the care of the aged and orphaned young of the Order, and fostered the movement which resulted in the Educational Foundation of the I.O.O.F.

Number of residents now in the Home, 3,614. Since our homes were first opened there have been admitted 33,643 persons. The value of our homes today is $15,335,262.61.

We have in Alberta 63 Rebekah lodges with a membership of 3,156. Today throughout the world there are 8,335 Rebekah lodges with a membership of 646,231.

At the close of Sister Day's talk, community singing was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served by a joint committee under the convener-ship of Sister E. McLeod, P.N.G., of Esther No. 1.

Invitations were sent to several of the subordinate lodges. We are sure the brothers who did attend spent an enjoyable evening. We look forward to a larger attendance next year from the brothers.—W.M.B.

Assembly Warden at Vega Rebekah Lodge

It has been quite some time since Vega Rebekah Lodge No. 97 reported.

We had a busy and successful first half of the year. In April we held a Bingo party, with a large attendance, making the event a pleasant and successful one.

Our spring tea and card party was held on May 2. The weather favoring us, we had a good attendance, the members being very pleased with the results. In June we held our impressive and beautiful memorial service, in memory of departed members. Flowers were placed on the altar for the members of the lodge who had passed on.

We held a social evening in honor of our lodge's birthday. Whist was played, Sister Kellett, P.N.G., and Sister McGimprey winning the honors. Refreshments were served by Sister Cann and her social committee, the lovely birthday cake being made by Sister Huckle.

We had a most enjoyable visit from the Assembly Warden, Sister Padgett, at a special meeting held in September. After the meeting the members held a Bingo party, with lots of fun and laughter. Refreshments were served, bringing a delightful evening to a close.

We are sorry to report there are several sisters on the sick list, we wish them a speedy recovery.

Hope Rebekah Lodge Holds Theatre Party

Most of the members of Hope No. 33 are back at lodge again and ready for the fall term. Another application has been received, so degree practise is again the important part of our work.

Sister Roberts, P.N.G., and Sister Watt, P.D.D.P., volunteered to assist in the collection of used clothing for the UNRRA.

Sister Harman, N.G., was named to head the committee on rehabilitation of our returned soldiers.

Sister Pendleton, P.P., in a few well chosen words, expressed our regret that Sister Patterson was about to leave us and wished her every success in her new home at Banff. Sister Patterson thanked the lodge for the gift and expressed the hope that she might be able to continue attending lodge in her new home.

A theatre party was arranged as a "get-together" in remembrance of our anniversary. Nearly half of our members met to see "Show Business," and enjoy a number of very hearty laughs together. Afterwards, a few of the brother Odd Fellows joined us for a lunch at the Union cafe. We enjoyed ourselves so much that we are looking forward to another social evening of some type in the near future.—C.

Vice President Visits Jewel Rebekah Lodge

Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, I.O.O.F., had the honor of an official visit from Sister L. Goodman, Vice President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, at its regular meeting on Thursday, October 4. Other past and present officers of the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Lodge of Alberta who had the pleasure of being present and receiving the honors of the degree with the Vice President were Sister Woodward, Outside Gardian of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, Sisters Pendleton, Moffat, Martin, Lake, Neumann, Past Presidents, and Brother Woodard, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, Brother Manson, District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 29, and Brothers Brown, Campbell, Martin, Sorenson, Past Grand Masters of Grand Lodge of Alberta. After sincerely welcoming these officers to our meeting, Noble Grand Sister Greenslade asked Sister Goodman to be escorted to a seat at her right and Bro. and Sis. Woodard to seats on her left.

During the course of the evening's business, Sister Maude Reid, a member of Lakeview Rebekah Lodge No. 110, Mirror, Alberta, was admitted to membership in Jewel Lodge by trans-fer.

Three candidates were also admitted to membership by initiation, Sister Victoria Russell, Sis. Effie Davidson and Sis. Florence Price. The degree team under the leadership of Sis. Hazel Forbes deserves much credit for their efficiency and the impressive degree conferred on the candidates.

The most satisfactory and pleasing report "of all time" was received from Bro. Alex D. Campbell, secretary-treasurer of the Norwood I.O.O.F. Temple, conveying the glad tidings that the final payment on the mortgage on the Temple has been made and the legal discharge papers are expected shortly. Needless to say, we are all joining whole-heartedly into plans for a bang-up bonfire. Please bring a match to assist in the cremation.

To the older members of the lodge who have stood by all these years, who have worked and toiled and labored and prayed, even when the skies were darkest and the outlook gloomiest, to them this object accomplished brings a world of satisfaction, a hope realized and renewed ambition to carry on in the future for bigger and better Rebekah Odd Fellowship at Jewel.

Sis. Goodman, V.P., in speaking to the lodge in her very gracious manner, expressed her pleasure and long anticipation of her visit to Jewel. She congratulated the lodge on their numerous activities and especially on burning the mortgage. She closed with a few remarks on initial beliefs and understandings of new candidates.

Sis. Goodman endeared herself to us all through her congenial personality, happy disposition and ardent desire to assist in every way possible. We are all anxious for a peak at the pictures.

The Noble Grand presented Sis. Goodman with a little gift as a souvenir of her visit.

Bro. Woodard, D.G.M., congratulated the lodge on the spirit of the degree and brought greetings from the Grand Lodge of Alberta.

At the close of the meeting lunch was served by the committee in charge, and a most sociable half hour was spent in becoming better acquainted with our Vice President and the Deputy Grand Master.—J.M.

Foothills Rebekah Lodge, Claresholm

Foothill Rebekah Lodge No. 105, of Claresholm, held a social tea in the Recreation Hall on September 29, in order to celebrate their ninety-fourth anniversary. The proceeds from the tea amounted to $29.10.

Foothill Rebekah Lodge sponsored Miss Mildred Thompson as a candidate for the Men's Club Carnival Queen contest, which was held on October 6. Miss Thompson won third prize of $25.00. Incidentally Mildred Thompson is our latest candidate, to be initiated at our next regular meeting.

Sister Andrews, V.G., reported Sister Moore, of Acme, a patient in the General hospital, Sister Thomas's mother ill, and Sister C. Jones was in the General hospital for 15 days having had an accident and suffered shock and injuries to her knee. We congratulate Sister C. McKay on the birth of a daughter, also Sister L. Kilvington has a daughter. Bro. Sheffield has been at home ill with influenza. Sister Bernice Bailey is now married and living at the coast.

The lodge is planning a card party on October 29, in the I.O.O.F. Temple, Centre street. We hope this will be a real success.

The secretary, Sister Blight, is now looking after all orders from the members of Esther Lodge for Christmas cards.

There was no meeting on October 8, Thanksgiving Day.

The lodge will be having an initiation on October 22. Sister McLeod, P.N.G., is degree captain.—Z.T.D.

Rebekah President Visits Provost Lodge

Provost Rebekah Lodge is still here, and though, Mr. Editor, you may not hear from us as often as you might wish, you may be assured we are quite alive and busy.

After a two months holiday we have resumed our work. Lodge opened Sept. 4, at 8 p.m., with most of our officers in their places and everyone looking happy—glad to be starting in on our fall term.

We were pleased to hear our President was soon to visit us. This was a good tonic for we found we must refresh our memories. Surprising how much one can forget in two months.

On Sept. 18, Provost Rebekah lodge No. 86 again came to order at 8 p.m., and after business of the lodge was completed, officers and members were able to spend some time on floor work.

On Sept. 18, Sister Minnie Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, arrived on the early morning train to pay us a visit. During the day many of the officers and members were privileged to meet Sister Gilkes, and so enjoyed her company that when lodge opened at 8 p.m., a feeling of expectancy and of quiet enjoyment pervaded the lodge room.

We were unfortunate in not having any candidates, but the busy season of the year might account for this—they will come in later. We have prospects.

The degree work was exemplified as requested. Reports were given of the condition of our two sick members, Sister Edpstedt, now at her home here, and Sister Michaelson, at St. Joseph's hospital, Edmonton. As Sister Michaelson has been an invalid for many years, the members of Provost Lodge would appreciate any calls made by members of sister lodges.

We were asked by the Red Cross to continue our quilt making, as quilts are still required, so we start right in patching and quilting.

Our President advised us on several matters which came up, and answered all questions asked. She then gave us a very splendid talk on lodge work which was listened to with keen interest and pleasure by everyone present, and all were delighted when, before closing her address, she suggested she might some day again visit Provost lodge, not as President, but as a sister lodge member.

Lodge closed at 10 p.m., and a social hour was spent around the table where a tasty lunch had been served by the committee in charge.

After all had partaken of the good things provided, Sister Theaker, N.G., called on several lodge members to say a few words, and those who spoke voiced the feeling of the entire gathering—that we had all thoroughly enjoyed the visit of our President and will be pleased to have her come again.—J.L.M.

Unity Rebekahs Hold Annual Roll Call

On Tuesday evening, September 25, Unity No. 26 celebrated their 33rd annual Roll Call. There was a good attendance of members and visitors present. The following Grand Lodge officers were introduced by Sisters Brock and Briggs, P.N.G.'s: Sister Myrtle Cundal, District Deputy President of District No. 2; Sisters Martin and Neumann, Past Presidents, and Bro. A. Young, Past Grand Master of Grand Lodge of Alberta.

Roll Call found 60 members present and many letters were read from those who were unable to attend. During the reading of the names, Sisters O. Graham and Henderson expressed the meaning of "Friendship, Love and Truth" in verse, while the same was exemplified on the floor in tableau form by the officers.

Sister Charlotte Martin, Past President, gave a most interesting and informative talk on the founding of the Order by Schuler Colfax, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Greetings were brought to our Roll Call by Sister Cundal, D.D.P., who also presented Sister Olive Graham with her Past Noble Grand's Jewel; Sister Neumann, Past President; Sister Greenslade, Noble Grand of Jewel No. 25, and by Sister Johnson, Noble Grand of Maple Leaf No. 2, also Sister Thelma Clarke, of Cutknife, Sask. Brother Arthur Young, P.G.M., also spoke briefly, congratulating Unity No. 26 on attaining the age of 33 years.

Sister Hannah Graham, P.N.G., presented Sister Eustace with her Veteran's Jewel, for which Sister Eustace thanked the lodge in a few well chosen words. Others receiving Veteran Jewels (by mail) were: Sister Annie Roberts and Sister Annie Batson, who are now residing in Vancouver, B.C.

Upon the closing of lodge a very delicious lunch was served by the October committee convened by Sister Alberta Wilson.

And so another Roll Call has come and gone.

Don't look for the flaws as you go through life,
And even when you find them—
Be wise, and kind, and somewhat blind,
And look for the good behind them.

Just a Reminder!

A "calendar" tea will be held on Tuesday, November 13, in Acacia hall, sponsored by the War Services Unit, from 3 until 5:30 p.m.

Watch for further particulars.—C.E.H.

Jewels Presented By Cavell Rebekahs

Members of Cavell Rebekah Lodge No. 56 opened their fall term with a good attendance. Several of the Sisters had been reported ill during the summer holidays, and flowers and greetings had been sent.

Sister Lorna Hay visited us from the Edson Lodge.

On Sept. 18, Sister Audry Gough was initiated into our lodge, also two Past Noble Grand Jewels were presented, one to Sister Geddis and the other to Sister Lillo.

The writer wishes to take this opportunity to thank the many Sisters and Brothers for their general understanding, sympathy and floral tributes during her recent sad bereavement.—M.L.
